

Manufacturer's Tax Credit Certificate American Recovery and Revitalization Act of 2009

The American Recovery and Revitalization Act of 2009 (ARRA) provides tax credits for the installation of Qualified Energy Property for residential heating and cooling equipment. Trane U.S. Inc. (Trane) certifies that the products or system listed below and placed in service from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2010 meets the efficiency requirements according to AHRI's rating system be eligible for a tax credit under ARRA.

Manufacturer: Trane U.S. Inc., 6200 Troup Highway, Tyler, TX 75707

Class of Qualified Energy Property: Residential heating and cooling equipment, including: central air conditioners, air source heat pumps, gas furnaces, oil furnaces, propane furnaces, and gas/oil/propane furnaces with advanced circulating fans

Other Important Homeowner Information

There are other important requirements and limitations for the tax credits under ARRA such as the qualified energy property must be installed in the homeowner's primary residence. Trane recommends that homeowners consult a tax professional to ensure they meet all requirements. The Internal Revenue Service is responsible for implementing and administering the tax credits made under ARRA.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have examined this certification statement, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the facts presented are true, correct, and complete.

Gordon Wuthrich
Vice President, Marketing
Trane Residential Systems

Qualifying Product or System